Nadya provides practical and dynamic counsel to domestic and international brand owners, assisting them with all aspects of clearance, prosecution, use, and enforcement of their most valuable intellectual property assets.

Clients rely on Nadya to provide efficient day-to-day responses and effective long-term management of their domestic and worldwide trademark portfolios. Nadya's clients benefit from the invaluable perspective she gained as in-house counsel and from her deep knowledge of food and beverage, pet food and product, technology, data center and AI, and other commercial industries.

Nadya regularly manages dispute resolution via the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and similar international forums, under the Uniform Domain-Name Dispute-Resolution Policy, and through skillful negotiation and private settlements. Clients have praised Nadya as a "trusted strategic partner" who is "incredibly practical and business savvy" and "works collaboratively to solve problems in the most efficient and effective way possible."
