Wiley collaborates with clients to develop creative and strategic solutions to their construction and commercial disputes.

Clients benefit from Wiley's solutions-oriented approach to resolving litigation. He is a regular author on topics related to construction disputes, real estate, and federal contracts. Raised in Alaska, Wiley brings a personal understanding of the state's unique commercial landscape faced by many of his clients.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Wiley worked at a firm specializing in construction and government contracts in the Pacific Northwest.

EXPERIENCE

Wiley has experience helping clients navigate the following matters:

- Public works projects
- Contract disputes
- Commercial insurance litigation
- Commercial contracts and force majeure litigation
