Cris counsels clients in business formation and financing, mergers and acquisitions, funds and investment management, and general corporate transactions.

Cris provides pragmatic solutions to companies at all stages of the corporate life cycle, from entity selection and formation to financing and capitalization. Her clients range from early-stage startups to large private companies. She has particular experience in mergers and acquisitions for insurance companies, software companies, IT managed service providers, and healthcare insurers, frequently navigating the complex regulatory frameworks that accompany transactions in the insurance industry. Cris also advises clients on funds and investment management matters. In addition, she counsels clients on a range of corporate governance and day-to-day legal issues and commercial agreements.

During law school, Cris served as a legal extern for the University Medical Center of Southern Nevada and as a legal intern at Everi Holdings Inc. She participated in the firm's Summer Clerk program in 2020.
