

Christopher Martin

Associate

555 17th Street, Suite 3200, Denver, CO 80202

P 303.295.8463

CRMartin@hollandhart.com

Chris supports clients throughout all phases of complex real estate and finance transactions.

PRACTICES

Real Estate
Resorts and Hospitality
Master Planned Communities
Real Estate Finance
Leasing

INDUSTRIES

Financial Institutions
Energy and Resources

EDUCATION

University of Denver Sturm College of Law, J.D., 2021
Irving P. Andrews Award for Outstanding Law Graduate, Recipient
Black Law Students Association, President
Robert B. Yegge Memorial Scholarship, Recipient

Colorado College, B.A., 2018

BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado

He assists clients in commercial real estate property transactions, resort and hospitality projects, high-end residential, as well as commercial leasing, lending, and renewable energy development. Chris focuses his practice on condominium and mixed-use development, homeowner and condominium association creation, reviewing and negotiating contracts, performing due diligence, and conducting title review. Chris also utilizes his experience in corporate law to assist clients in matters involving business formation.

Before joining the firm as an associate, Chris clerked for Holland & Hart during his final year of law school and served as an extern to Judge David J. Richman of the Colorado Court of Appeals. He is also fluent in Spanish.

RECOGNITION

- Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America, Real Estate Law, 2027