Ken leverages over 40 years of experience providing a business-focused approach to his legal representation.

Ken's strategy is simple; provide the best counsel to his clients by assessing business risk and providing a clear plan for how to address legal conflicts when they arise and resolution through negotiation to avoid litigation – if possible. His broad experience includes working with clients in domestic and international markets and various industries including real estate, construction, hospitality, and energy. He also handles matters relating to business organizations and asset protection.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Ken practiced at a full-service law firm in Salt Lake City, Utah.
