Adrienne assists high net worth families in maximizing and preserving their wealth using tax efficient strategies.

Adrienne helps clients understand the importance of proactive planning to preserve and protect private wealth and works closely with clients to identify wealth transfer goals and develop tailored estate plans designed to minimize tax exposure. She provides nuanced insight on managing and minimizing tax liability, including planned giving, gift taxation, and establishing charitable trusts.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Adrienne served as Vice President of Legal Product with SixFifty at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati where she focused on leveraging technology to serve her clients efficiently and was an associate at two full-service law firms in Salt Lake City and Washington, DC.
