Addison assists stakeholders pursuing wind, solar, and battery storage projects to navigate due diligence, zoning and entitlements (including easements), and secure permits at the state and federal level. She also represents clients in the acquisition and disposition of property and negotiation of leases for solar and wind farms.

Addison also supports large and small clients at all stages of commercial project development. She has negotiated purchase and sale agreements, structured documents to maintain tax benefits post-acquisition, and coordinated timely closings to support clients' business goals.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Addison worked at an Am Law 100 firm ranked nationally in energy law.

Addison is admitted to practice in Missouri and Nebraska. She is temporarily authorized to practice in Colorado pending admission under C.R.C.P. 205.6.
