PRACTICES

Private Client
Trust and Estate Planning and Administration

Callie supports all facets of the estate and wealth planning practice including the preparation of revocable trusts, irrevocable trusts, wills, powers of attorney and related documents. She is well-versed in trust and estate administration, encompassing all stages of the probate process due to her extensive experience in the field. Callie sits on the firm's Corporate Transparency Act (CTA) committee and helps manage CTA compliance filings.

Prior to her tenure at Holland & Hart, Callie honed her skills as a legal assistant and paralegal at a boutique law firm in Boise, specializing in trust and estate matters.
