Tom works in close collaboration with clients involved in complex business and commercial litigation matters.

Tom helps clients navigate all stages of litigation, from investigation and trial preparation through trial. He effectively represents clients in a broad range of cases, with an emphasis on contract disputes, land use conflicts, and real estate matters, including foreclosures. His clients include companies and individuals in the construction, oil and gas, retail, and technology industries.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Tom practiced as a litigation associate at a Utah-based law firm. Prior to that, he clerked for Judge Paul B. Parker, Judge Elizabeth A. Hruby-Mills, and Judge Amy J. Oliver of Utah's Third District Court. He also brings extensive leadership and management experience he gained through his eight years of service as a US Marine Corps officer.
