Jacob supports employers as they navigate the complex immigration process to hire talent that meets their current and future business needs.

PRACTICES

Immigration Services

EDUCATION

New Hampshire Technical Institute (NHTI), Paralegal Certificate, 2017

University of Maine at Farmington, B.A., 2013

Jacob works closely with attorneys and client teams, including HR managers and foreign national employees, to gather supporting information and documentation to prepare and file persuasive, compliant immigration petitions for temporary and permanent work in the US. He has experience managing and processing a range of non-immigrant and immigrant visa applications and petitions, including liaising with and responding to USCIS questions and responses.

Working as a research analyst at DTSV, a contractor to the National Visa Center, Jacob gained valuable knowledge into non-immigrant and immigrant visa processing.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Jacob worked at Olgetree Deakins as a business immigration paralegal in Denver.
