

Lainey Larsen

Associate

555 17th Street, Suite 3200, Denver, CO 80202

P 303.295.8393

ECLarsen@hollandhart.com

Lainey provides dedicated support to clients navigating energy and environmental challenges.

Lainey's practice focuses on environmental regulatory and litigation matters. She taps into her knowledge of legislative processes and comprehensive legal research skills when assisting energy clients on complex issues within the interplay between environmental law and policy.

Working with Representative David P. Joyce (OH-14) in Washington, DC on energy-related legislation and appropriations Lainey leverages the valuable insights gained from her experience with energy, environmental, and economic policy to guide clients through regulatory complexities.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Lainey participated in the firm's Summer Clerk program and served as an intern for Honorable Judge Timothy Tymkovich and Honorable Judge Daniel Domenico at the U.S. District Court for Colorado.

EXPERIENCE

Lainey advises clients on a variety of environmental matters including:

- National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) compliance and litigation
- Natural resources litigation
- Land use disputes
- Surface and right-of-way disputes
- Permitting and regulatory compliance

PRACTICES

Environmental Transactions
Environmental
Environmental Litigation
Environmental Health and Safety

INDUSTRIES

Oil and Gas
Energy and Resources
Data Centers

EDUCATION

University of Denver Sturm College of Law, J.D., 2024

Roanoke College, B.A., 2019

BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado