Anna supports clients on complex real estate matters with a focus on affordable housing and renewable energy projects.

Anna provides legal counsel at all stages of commercial real property transactions, including affordable housing projects. She assists clients with financing, development, acquisitions, and dispositions. She also performs due diligence related to renewable energy projects, including title and survey review and land use research.

Prior to joining the firm, Anna was a Legal Intern for the Office of General Counsel for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in Denver. She also previously participated in Holland & Hart's summer clerk program where she conducted legal research and drafted and reviewed legal documents for the Real Estate practice group. Additionally, Anna was a Judicial Intern for Justice Melissa Hart of the Colorado Supreme Court and for Magistrate Judge Kristen Mix of the US District Court for the District of Colorado.

Prior to law school, Anna was a language teacher in adult education.
