Josh is an intellectual property attorney focused on domestic and international IP portfolio prosecution, brand protection strategy, and enforcement. His unique blend of legal acumen and policy experience allows him to provide clients with comprehensive, practical IP counsel.

Josh advises clients on domestic and international trademark, copyright, and patent matters, from portfolio development and prosecution strategy to enforcement and due diligence. He takes a business-focused approach to every matter, whether navigating complex USPTO and USCO proceedings, negotiating resolutions with opposing counsel, or crafting global brand protection strategies.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Josh served as an intellectual property managing associate at a boutique IP law firm in New York, where he developed deep experience managing complex, multi-jurisdictional IP portfolios for global brands.
